UNION SAVINGS BANK WILL SOON BE SOLD, MANY OFFERS MADE

President Smith Accepts Handsome New York Offer-Local Market.

The Union Savings Bank, established in 1891, and one of the strongest savings institutions in the city, will soon change ownership. Control is at present centered in E. Quincy Smith, pres-Ment, son of the first president and founder of the bank, and personal

The sale will be consequent to the departure of Mr. Smith to New York city to accept a very flattering offer to join the official staff of the United Btates and Mexican Trust Company, as vice president, at a salary of $20,000 per annum.

Mr. Smith says that it would be impossible for him to sever his entire connections in Washington, and that he will retain a partnership in the F. H. Smith Company, one of the leading real estate corporations in the city. The United States and Mexican Trust Company is comparatively unknown in the Capital. It is not in any sense of the word a bank, as it does not receive deposits. It is largely a development company. Starting ten years ago with a capital of $250,000, it is today a $1,250,-000 concern, with an actual surplus of moer than the capital.

Its main office in in the Singer build-office buildings. It has a large English business with offices in London, occupies the largest office building in Mexico

Its earning power is chiefly in com-missions, and the Mexican results are just about as large as usual despite the troubles there. Arthur E. Stillweil is the president of the company. Mr. Smith has been a member of the board of directors of the corporation for three years, and a member also of the executive committee. Mr. Smith feels keenly a severance of his relations with the savings bank- Geo many of its depositors being friends and children of friends of his father. He feels that while bettering his own future in going to New York, he cannot afford to leave his large interest, practically control in the savings bank in other hands. He goes to his new duties May 1. In the meantime the bank will be transferred to strong and capable management, remaining in the present location. resent location.

mule for the control. It is known that friends of the Citizens Savings Bank are considering a merger; that a leading trust company has looked into the proposition.

The Union Savings Bank has a capital of $200,000, a surplus of $110,000.

Total deposits $1,463,462, nearly all indi-

The book value of the stock is about $160 a share.

Mr. Smith will retain his position of director in the Commercial National Bank, of which he is a large shareholder.

He became interested in the Commercial through the merger of the National City Rank, of which he was president with the Commercial.

His interests in Washington, in real estate and building operations are very heavy. He was raised in Washington, educated in the public schools and is known as one of the successful men of the city.

Local securities were decidedly snow, but there was no evidence of weakness—just resting under the cloud of gloom attending on the great marine disaster. Railway common. 864; Gus. 88½.
